'Mother's Day - Year 2005'

Fifth grade pupils of Miss Val Brannon (above) at Appomattox Intermediate School staged a play for classmates and mothers Friday depicting "Mother's Day - 2005" and a world where there was no work for people because machines had taken over. Bud Rosser (far left) and Timmy Page (standing, far right) wrote part of the play and acted as directors together with Donna Gunter, Mary Dyess and Diane Lambert. The solution to the problem of "No work" -- find a new planet and start all over again. Taking part (from left), Bud Rosser, Dawn Holliday, Steve Burrell, Clifford Rhodenizer (the "Robot"), Dee Ann Wootes, Frances McFaden, Timmy Page and (kneeling on floor,) Carol Beaty and Michelle Tweety. The audience also saw another play, "Care and Feeding of Mothers" which featured Andy Poole, Michael Rowe, Glenda Doss, Mark Thomas, Gordon Lawson, Susan Campbell and Susan Godsey.
